

Technical Bulletin 158

Version 1.1 23rd December 2014

New Tiger PCsoftware now available

TigerPC V1.0.0.75 contains a gas table update and the support of Portuguese language.

The new gas table contains many more gas compounds and the latest response factors and work exposure levels.

When you connect your Tiger via the USB connection to your PC, an automatic message will appear allowing you to update the software.

Alternatively, you can download the software direct to your PC from our website along with the translated gas tables (English, French and German only):
